Communications

Letter- Nancy Keebler 6333 Josie St, Atwater. Requests assistance from MAC to look into improving safety at intersection of Gurr Rd and Highway 140. A letter is attached. Mrs. Keebler has been invited to speak and answer how she plans to assist in making changes to improve safety at the intersection.

Update: Public Works has been briefed and has asked for the McSwain MAC to follow up with letter attachment and a letter directing how the MAC should respond.

Email- A request has been made to the chairman to ask county public works help with mitigating a fence that is half torn down and full of graffiti. The fence is located at Station Rd and SP Ave. A letter was sent to the property owner, but the MAC never received a reply. The MAC recently received communication from a neighbor who asked if something can be done about the graffiti, the damaged and missing boards. The neighbor received a reply from the MAC stating we would follow up with public works for guidance on how to proceed

New Business

Abatement programs-The Committee will discuss how to mitigate graffiti and to mitigate excess vehicles on properties.
